

We have many training options on offer and we are able to cater for your individual needs. Please check our website and email or phone Neil (0438722187) for more details. Reasonable prices and satisfaction guaranteed please contact us to confirm a booking.

Exploring Flip Video – Introduction to Flip video cameras and the FlipShare software (1.5 to 2 hrs.)

Flips and Maths – Workshop explores how Flips can be used for maths by teachers and students (2 to 3 hrs.)

BeeBots and Maths – BeeBots have been huge in the UK and on the East Coast. Introduction to this wonderful little robot and all its capabilities to transform and enhance Maths concepts for students K to 7. (2 to 4 hrs; can involve students)

BeeBots and Literacy – Introduction to BeeBots and how they can be used for early literacy development (2 to 3 hrs; can involve students)

Electronic Portfolios and Formative Assessment - Electronic Portfolios enable students to record their learning, reflections and highlights on computer. Investigate template for Electronic Portfolios and make links to formative assessment practices including digital storytelling. (3-6 hrs.)

Clay Animation - Learn how to set up hardware and software necessary to conduct clay animation with students. Covers planning, storyboarding and creating clay models, sound and editing. (3-6 hours; can involve students)

Digital Storytelling - Digital stories are a very powerful way for students to express themselves. Learn about necessary hardware and software and create your own digital stories. (3-6 hrs.)

Video Editing – Negotiate a course depending on staff needs, interests and software available to sites. Includes planning, taking the best video footage, editing, output and storage.(2 hrs to full day)

Exploring Digital Microscopes – A hands on introduction to a range of microscopes, their capabilities and potential to be incorporated across the curriculum. (2 to 3 hrs; can involve students)

Interactive Whiteboards - Thinking about your first IWBs or replacing your existing IWBs? We offer unbiased support and consultation. Includes exploration of the Innovative R.I.C. Interactive screen that fits to LCD and Plasma screens.

Leading Digital is an innovative SA company specialising in ICT for all educational institutions, schools, pre-schools and the general public. We provide consultancy, training programs and sales for all ICT needs. As the challenges in ICT management and integration increase Leading Digital is able to apply their experiences and knowledge, ensuring your desired targets and outcomes.

This year I am pleased to be coordinating a team of highly skilled and experienced ICT Facilitators with over 100 years of K-12 teaching experience between us! Please contact Neil Tregenza, Director to discuss your needs.

Phone: 0438722187

Fax: 08 82961410

Web: www.leadingdigital.com.au

Email: neilt@leadingdigital.com.au

“If we don’t like it we won’t sell it!”